NIARA CONNECT S

lux

- The new free-standing office luminaire niara from nevalux discreetly blends into the modern office environment thanks to its elegant, technical design. With its future-oriented lighting technology options and extensive sensor technology, the luminaire can offer far more than just perfect light. Thanks to innovative lighting control and digital networking, several luminaires can be combined into groups, for example, or information about brightness and movement can be recorded and processed throughout the area.
